

Genpact to showcase Appready<sup>SM</sup> rapid Oracle deployment solution at Oracle OpenWorld 2006

'Aim Higher!' will be theme for Genpact, one of the world's largest Oracle® E-Business Suite solution providers

New York, NY (October 19, 2006) – With 'aim higher!' as its theme, Genpact, a global provider of business and technology services and a Partner in Oracle® PartnerNetwork, today announced its participation in Oracle OpenWorld, Oct. 22-26, 2006, in San Francisco, including:

- demonstration of its Appready<sup>SM</sup> rapid Oracle deployment solution as well as services in finance, lease management, database management, testing, supply chain & procurement, and e-learning;
- a 50 x 30 ft. custom exhibit booth, 16 feet tall, canopied by dramatic 'aim higher!' wings and marked by a 25 ft. column;
- 35 interactive presentations in the Genpact mini-theatre; and
- 8 dinner-for-two prize drawings at "high-altitude" restaurants like the Space Needle in Seattle and Top of the Mark in San Francisco.

Genpact ERP solutions span the full process spectrum, including analysis, design, construction, tuning and maintenance. Services include Oracle® Database, Oracle ERP applications, ERP system administration, Oracle's Siebel implementations, data warehousing, functional and load testing, and application monitoring. Principally owned by GE and private equity firms General Atlantic and Oak Hill Capital Partners, Genpact has 3,000 professionals across the globe supporting Oracle, making the company one of the largest Oracle® E-Business Suite solutions providers in the world.

"We will be showcasing how our clients are seeing significant benefits from Genpact's unique combination of business-process and IT outsourcing, strengthened by robust Lean Six Sigma methods, Oracle expertise, and domain knowledge in all the major verticals," said Steve Jolly, Genpact vice president for Oracle solutions. He added that Genpact clients are seeing 35 to 50 percent reductions in the cost to run their finance, supply chain, and field-service operations within 12 months of engaging Genpact's Oracle Solutions team.

Drawing from its symbol of a stylized red arrow penetrating a blue box, Genpact has chosen 'aim higher!' as its theme for Oracle OpenWorld. The company will host 35 interactive mini-theatre presentations and feature various prize drawings and promotions at a 1,500-square-foot exhibit uniquely designed from floor to ceiling. In addition to the booth participation, Genpact executives have been chosen as thought leaders to speak at 7 Oracle-sponsored track sessions, sharing their Oracle E-Business Suite expertise in areas ranging from process excellence, procurement, finance & accounting and e-business.

During this pivotal IT conference, Genpact will also showcase the benefits of its Appready<sup>SM</sup> platform, which shortens implementation time and decreases the cost of Oracle E-Business Suite deployments while accelerating the adoption of best business practices. Genpact supports and manages finance & accounting and supply chain business processes for some of the world's largest companies running Oracle E-Business Suite. Based on this global experience, Genpact created Appready to enable its customers to quickly achieve standardized, simplified and best-in-class business processes. With 26,000 process and IT associates, Genpact currently serves all six of GE's businesses, ranging in size from $15 billion to $42 billion in annual revenues, and an additional 18 Global 2000 customers.

Genpact will host 35 interactive mini-theatre presentations at its booth featuring the company's subject matter experts discussing the following topics:

- Achieving Process Excellence – Six Sigma Based ERP Implementations
- Jump Start Change Management: Pre-built E-Learning for ERP Processes
- Appready<sup>SM</sup>: Jumpstart to Global Compliance in the Oracle E-Business Suite
- Financial Service Industry Solutions
- Enterprise Vulnerability Assessments
- Pre-Built Oracle Testing Scripts: Jumpstart Your Mercury Testing & Monitoring
- Excellence in Payable Shared Services Centers
- Genpact SolPro<sup>TM</sup>: Procure to Pay Managed Services Solution
- Optimizing Financial Process in Global Deployments
- Deploying Manufacturing Systems in Asia-Pacific

"Oracle is very excited to count Genpact as one of our OpenWorld 2006 participants," said Rauline Ochs, Group Vice President, North America Alliances and Channels, Oracle. "Each year, we welcome leaders in IT innovation from around the globe, and Genpact's strong pedigree in process excellence built on their deep heritage with GE and Six Sigma makes them an important addition to our roster."

From October 23 and through October 25 during OpenWorld 2006, Genpact will hold periodic “aim higher!” prize drawings for several dinners for two at some of the world’s tallest restaurants and one grand prize of five nights at the luxurious Auberge du Soleil resort in Napa Valley including a morning hot air balloon ride above California’s wine country. To enter the drawings, visit Genpact at booth #3430 Moscone West.
