

Genpact & 170 Systems Announce Global Alliance to Deliver Powerful Solutions for Oracle® E-Business Suite Customers

Genpact selects 170 Systems' 170 MarkView® Financial Suite for AppreadySM platform to expand financial management and optimization offerings

New York, NY and Bedford, MA (October 10, 2006) – Genpact, a global provider of high-quality business and technology services, and 170 Systems, a leader in optimizing financial processes for the world's largest companies, announced today that they have formed a strategic global alliance to jointly provide powerful and rapid Oracle deployment solutions for Oracle® E-Business Suite customers. Under the alliance, Genpact will integrate its AppreadySM platform with 170 Systems' 170 MarkView® Financial Suite to provide Oracle-based Global 2000 businesses with best-of-breed finance solutions.

Genpact's AppreadySM platform is a complete suite of rapid Oracle deployment solutions that includes business processes, integration software, conversion tools, training courses, testing scripts and third-party products and can be tailored to multiple industries including manufacturing, service industries, and financial services. Genpact, a Certified Partner in the Oracle PartnerNetwork, is one of the world's largest Oracle E-Business solutions providers.

Under this new agreement, Genpact customers can take advantage of optimized, best-in-class business processes for Accounts Payable, Accounts Receivable and other finance functions with reduced implementation times, deployment risks, and costs and the knowledge that 170 Systems is an Oracle Certified Advantage Partner.

“Partnering with clients who rely on us to process over six million invoices a year, we conducted a rigorous, nine-month, Six-Sigma-based review of available software products to meet their requirements and determined that 170 Systems' Markview Suite is the best solution for our AppreadySM platform,” said Steve Jolly, vice president of Oracle solutions at Genpact. “With more than 3,000 associates specialized in the Oracle E-Business Suite practice, we are excited that this alliance will further strengthen and expand our offerings to deliver business impact to global customers across multiple industries.”

The global alliance includes the development, co-marketing and resale of pre-built solutions to Oracle E-business Suite customers.

“As one of the big three finance and accounting outsourcers, Genpact has built a strong reputation as a thought leader in the Oracle E-Business marketplace and we’re delighted to extend their offerings with the 170 MarkView product line, the gold standard for transforming Global 2000 financial processes,” said Dave Ellenberger, president and CEO of 170 Systems. “With Genpact’s expertise in guiding clients through the business transformations involved in outsourcing critical business functions, we are confident that this new partnership will deliver tremendous value for both our existing customers and new Oracle customers looking to rapidly deploy pre-built global solutions.”

The 170 MarkView Financial Suite, comprising software solutions for procure-to-pay, order-to-cash and general accounting for Global 2000 organizations, automates and standardizes financial processes to help finance departments reduce costs, strengthen internal controls and compliance, and improve service levels. Tightly integrated with leading ERP systems, the 170 MarkView Financial Suite embeds best practices in financial processes, transforming multi-step, multi-person tasks into highly efficient workflows with as few as five steps, and delivers a measured three-year return on investment of 330 percent with a payback period of 7.4 months.
